

WORK FACES

Appointments

Countryman

■ Weatherford Regional Medical Center announced that Cory Countryman has been named the new CEO effective Dec. 6.

Lawhon

■ W.M. "Mack" Lawhon, CPA, chairman of Weaver, the largest regional independent certified public accounting firm in the Southwest, was recently appointed to the Financial Accounting Foundation's board of trustees for a five-year term that begins in January.

Honors

■ The Fort Worth Police Officers' Award Foundation has been honored in an international marketing and communication competition, the Marcom Awards. A platinum award, the highest available, was received for marketing and fundraising efforts completed as the foundation renewed its commitment to excellence through the launch of a communitywide appreciation initiative. Pavlik and Associates created and produced the campaign.

■ The U.S. Commerce Department's National Institute of Standards and Technology announced that Freese and Nichols Inc. of Fort Worth is a recipient of the 2010 Malcolm Baldrige National Quality Award in the small-business category. Freese and Nichols is the first engineering and architectural firm ever to receive this award and one of seven businesses to be recognized this year.

■ The Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies voted to approve the Grand Prairie Police Department's second law enforcement accreditation award Nov. 20. The department was first accredited in 2007 and is one of only 30 law enforcement agencies in Texas and about 600 internationally as an accredited law enforcement agency by the commission.

Moves

Harvey

■ Uniflight, Grand Prairie, has announced the addition of longtime aviation industry professional Shirley Harvey as the company's sales and marketing manager.

■ Fort Worth-based Trademark Property Co. has announced it has formed a strategic partnership with Jeff Higgins, who is joining the company's leasing team as a full-time consultant. Higgins began his new role Nov. 17.